

I support the ARRL petition, To create a entry level license. I feel this will help bring more young and older people in the hobby and keep amateur radio around for years to come.

I also feel that by using the new license format you will be able streamline the governments data base and cut through the time consuming RED TAPE to process a new licensee.